DETAILED ACTION

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 101

1. 35 U.S.C. 101 reads as follows:

Whoever invents or discovers any new and useful process, machine, manufacture, or composition of matter, or any new and useful improvement thereof, may obtain a patent therefor, subject to the conditions and requirements of this title.

Claims 5-8 and 17 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 101 because the claimed invention is directed to non-statutory subject matter. Page 52 of the guidelines found at:

http://www.uspto.gov/web/offices/pac/dapp/opla/preognotice/guidelines101_20051026.pdf states that functional descriptive material claimed as a data structure on a computer readable medium is statutory. Page 54 states that nonfunctional descriptive material is not statutory. Claim 5 consists solely of nonfunctional material because it constitutes a mere arrangement or compilation of data.

Allowable Subject Matter

2. Claim 14 is allowed.
